

8:00am Registration opens at 📍 Reception | Breakfast available at 📍 King George

9:00 am Sedex opening remarks: The Humanity of Supply Chains - How do we achieve impact?

♥ Porter Tun

Simon McCalla,
CEO, Sedex

9:10 am Keynote: The Corporate Responsibility to Drive Social Purpose

Justin King has over thirty years of experience working in and leading large businesses, offering significant operational insight and experience in business transformation.

♥ Porter Tun

Justin King, Vice
Chairman, Terra Firma

9:40 am Keynote: Aligning trade with ethical business

♥ Porter Tun

Dame Sara Thornton,
Independent Anti-Slavery
Commissioner UK

10:10 am Keynote: Achieving impact in complex political environments

How do we navigate child labour and forced labour, when we have no control over the root cause? Where does the responsibility of business start and stop?

♥ Porter Tun

Aarti Kapoor, Managing Director, Embode

10:40 am Mid-morning break | 📍 King George III

11:10 am Sedex Unconference: Live crisis – problem solving for impact

For the first time ever at a Sedex Conference, delegates will solve the biggest challenges in the supply chain in a live scenario.

♥ Porter Tun

Sedex Experiential
Learning

12:40 pm Lunch break | 📍 King George III

Breakout 1 | 📍 Porter Tun

1:40 pm Panel 1: Multi-facets of gender in the supply chain

We discuss real life examples of businesses creating gender equality in their business and supply chain, including how to measure and accelerate progress.

Leanne Campbell,
Procurement Policy
and Process Manager,
Greggs

Annelise Thim,
Manager Women's Empowerment, BSR

Dr Lucy Brill, HW/W
Coordinator, Home
Workers Worldwide
(HWW)

Jo Webb, Global
Ethical Trade
Manager, The Body
Shop (facilitator)

2:25 pm Panel 2: Addressing critical issues: what to do when you discover an issue

Detection of issues is continuing to improve, but are we prepared to remediate?

Olivia Murphy, Sustainability Manager, Whitbread PLC

Breakout 2 | ♥ Upper Sugar

1:40 pm

Panel 1: The future of social auditing - is there a need to change?

What's the role of social auditing for creating impact on people in the supply chain? How do we ensure the quality and integrity of social audits and their output (data)?

Magali Martowicz,
Head of Responsible
Sourcing, Sedex

Yakut Oktay,
Social Programmes
Lead, amfori

Rona Starr, President
and CEO, APSCA

Rosey Hurst, Founder
and Director, Impact2
(moderator)

2:25 pm

Panel 2: Addressing the social impact of climate change: How can we better align environmental and social responsible sourcing strategies?

How can we ensure consideration of workers' needs? How can workers contribute to a more sustainable economy?

Farid Baddache,
CEO & President, Ksapa

Breakout 3 | ♥ Queen Charlotte

Spotlight 1: Understanding human rights impact assessments

What is a human rights impact assessment? Why and how can I do one? How can outcomes support my responsible sourcing programme?

Speaker to be announced

Spotlight 2: Working with suppliers and implementing a human rights approach in Asia - a supplier perspective

Mostafiz Udin,
Managing Director, Denim
Expert Ltd

Spotlight 3: How can we work with vulnerable groups to uphold responsible recruitment?

Why are migrant workers more vulnerable to exploitation and recruitment fees? What principles can businesses adopt to address this?

Phil Marshall,
Board Director, The Mekong Club and Director Research and Communications Group

Spotlight 4: The ETI base code

How progress in ethical trade has led you to a review of the base code and what business needs to focus on in the next 5 - 10 years.

Peter McAllister
Executive Director, The Ethical Trading Initiative
(ETI)

Spotlight 5: How can we leverage behavioural science to address common business and human rights challenges and effectively implement behaviour change initiatives within companies?

Katryn Wright
Advisor, Better Business
Behaviour

Sedex Conference Agenda

18 March 2020 . The Brewery, London

3:10 pm Afternoon break | 📍 King George III

3:40 pm Keynote: Achieving supply chain transparency using innovative solutions

Creating production visibility using dust particles.

♥ Porter Tun

Jessica Green
Co-Founder and CEO, Phylagen

4:10 pm Keynote: Driving ethical recruitment through worker voice in South-east Asia

Mark Taylor
Director- Strategy and
Global Partnerships, Issara
Institute

4:40 pm Closing remarks

♥ Porter Tun

Simon McCalla,
CEO, Sedex

4:45 pm Networking drinks | 📍 King George III

6:00 pm Sedex Awards ceremony and dinner commence

♥ Queen Elizabeth